DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-8, 14-21, 26, 27, 30 and 32, drawn to liquid jetting method by dividing the substrate, classified in class 427, subclass 421.
 - II. Claims 9-11, 22, 23, 28, 29, 31, drawn to liquid jetting method with both a non-jetting time and jetting time, classified in class 427, subclass 421.
 - III. Claims 12, 13, 24 and 25, drawn to apparatus for jetting liquid to a substrate, classified in class 118, subclass 696.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions of group I and group II are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions are unrelated because Group I requires the division of the substrate into at least 2 regions and applying more liquid to one region than the other and Group II requires the use of an on/off jetting method with a non-circular substrate.
3. Inventions of group I and group III are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process.

(MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case the process as claimed can be practiced by hand where as the apparatus requires a means of controlling liquid jet amount.

4. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

5. Inventions of group II and group III are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process.

(MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case the process as claimed can be practiced by hand where as the apparatus requires a means of controlling liquid jet amount.

6. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

7. A telephone call was made to Gregory Schivley on September 24, 2004 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
